

Request to publish copyright material (private individuals only)

Publication of Mills Archive material is prohibited unless specific copyright permission is obtained and a fee paid where applicable.

We cannot give permission for publication of material that is not our copyright. Users are legally required to obtain copyright permission from the copyright owner before publication. You may not assume that because you have obtained an image from the Mills Archive, either directly from the web site or by purchasing it for research or private study, this allows you to publish it either on the Internet or elsewhere.

Rates for commercial use are available on request.

Request for permission to publish copyright material

I request copyright approval to publish the following images (continue on a separate sheet if necessary):

	Full description of image	Item no.
1
2

- I agree to use the acknowledgment © Mills Archive Trust.
- I agree to provide the Mills Archive with a free copy of the publication.
- I enclose a cheque payable to the Mills Archive Trust for £ in payment of the copyright fee of £50 per image.

Now please complete the remainder of the form on the second page.

There are various circumstances in which the Mills Archive will waive the copyright fee, but you must still complete and return this form, and provide your reason before requesting a waiver below.

I request that the copyright fee be waived / reduced (delete as required) because:
